BEFORE THE COMMISSION:

The above-captioned docket, opened on September 9, 2003, established an investigation of NorthWestern Energy because of concerns about the company's financial condition. On September 14, 2003, NorthWestern filed for bankruptcy, and the Commission maintained this docket for purposes of monitoring bankruptcy proceedings.

The company emerged from bankruptcy October 14, 2004. No further monitoring of bankruptcy issues is required; therefore the Commission finds that it should close Application No. NG-0011/PI-74.
